TO CORRESPONDENTS.

"Drying-Closets for Oats."—A correspondent says,—"Reading an article in THE BUILDER on 'Drying-Closets,' and being about to build a mill for grinding oats, it struck me that some such arrangement would answer much better than the common kilns for drying oats before grinding, as, in the common kiln, perhaps nine-tenths of the heat is lost. Probably some of your correspondents would give an opinion on this matter."

"Constant Subscriber." Chatham.—A Fellow of the Institute must be an architect: who has been engaged as principal for at least seven successive years in the practice of civil architecture. To become an Associate, it is necessary to have attained the age of 21, and to be engaged in the study of civil architecture or in practice less than seven years. There is nothing to prevent any man dubbing himself architect, and starting a brass-plate to that effect.

W. R.—The variation is itself inconstant. Its amount in winter is scarcely half that in summer, and there is even a considerable daily variation, morning, noon, and night. Attention to this is scarcely necessary in fixing a vane.

Received.—"F. E. C." (stained-glass borders may be used in a conservatory without fear of injuring the plants,—we should employ blue, yellow, or green, rather than red). "F.," "Mr. L.," "W. ARCHITECTS', BUILDERS', and GENERAL FIRE and LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, 69, Lombard-street, London.
CHAIRMAN, SYDNEY SMIRKE, Esq., A.R.A.
TRUSTEES.
T. L. Donaldson, Esq. | A. Salvin, Esq., F.S.A.
S. Ormsdall, Esq. | G. Smith, Esq., F.S.A.
The rates for both Fire and Life Insurances are as low as can with safety be taken. Those for Life Insurance may be paid either yearly, half-yearly, or quarterly; one-half the annual premium may be left unpaid for seven years, or one-third to the end of life. Thus large sums may be insured at the smallest present outlay.
Prospectuses, forms of proposals, &c., may be had at the Office, 69, Lombard-street, or of the agents.
JOHN REDDIE, Manager.

VICTORIA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY, 18, King William-street, City.
Insurance to many of the Colonies allowed without additional charge, and the premiums required for the East or West Indies and other extra risks, is more than usually moderate.
On policies taken out for the whole term of life, one-third of the annual premiums may remain unpaid till death, thus parties are enabled to effect an Insurance, say for 1,200l., by the payment of premium on 800l. only.
The half-credit system for five years is also adopted.
Four fifths, or 80 per cent. of the entire profits are appropriated to assurers entitled to share therein.
Advances continue to be made to assurers on eligible property or reversions, and also on the guarantee of most unexceptionable personal sureties.
WILLIAM RATRAY, Actuary and Secretary.

NATIONAL LOAN FUND LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY, 26, Regent-street, London. Capital, present, Empowered by Act of Parliament.
The leading features of the Society are—Guarantees of an ample proprietary capital. Moderate rates of premium. Two-thirds premium lended to the assured. Annual division of profits. Half the premium may remain as a loan for five years. Extensive travelling leave granted without extra premium. Moderate extra premium for residence in tropical climates.
N.B. The last annual bonus to the assured varied from 2l. to 6l. per cent. according to age on the premiums paid.
For prospectuses, with detailed information, apply at the office, or any of the branches, by post or otherwise.
W. S. B. WOOLHOUSE, Actuary.

DEPUTY-CHAIRMAN—NICHOLAS CHARRINGTON, Esq.
Detailed Prospectuses of the extended system of Life Insurance (in case over temporary payment of only two-thirds of the premium) may be had gratis.
Loans granted on the policies of this office.
The system of Mutualising Profits on Fire Insurances was adopted at the foundation of the Union Society, in the year 1714.
Agents desired in places where none are at present appointed.
Peter Cole, THOMAS LEWIS, Secretary.
The LIFE BONUS of the year 1858, of two-thirds of the profits of the Life Department, has been this day declared, and with the exception of a reserve of 20 per cent. accumulate towards the next bonus, is ready to be applied upon and with the sum insured, or the value received in cash.

SERVANTS' PROVIDENT and BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.
Patronesses—Their Majesties the QUEEN and the QUEEN DOWAGER.
Patron—His Royal Highness Prince ALBERT.
President—The Bishop of LONDON.
Treasurers—Thomas Cloete, Esq., Ordnance Office, Pall mall; and Harry Chester, Esq., High-gate.
Its objects are—
1. That servants should prepare for themselves a certain provision in old age on Government security, for their children a sum of money at 14 or 21 years of age; and for their own burial a sum payable at death.
2. That a home for female servants out of place, where the number of women may be saved from ruin, and also a special lodging house for male servants and sleepers at their masters' houses, out of place, should be established and maintained.
3. That a separate register for female and male servants be attached to the house and lodging-houses.
For the accomplishment of these objects, which are equally important to masters and servants, donations and subscriptions are earnestly solicited, and will be received by the Treasurers, Messrs. Hoare, Fleet-street; Messrs. Barclay and Co., Lombard-street; Messrs. Hopkinson and Co., Regent-street; and by the Secretary, to whom all communications should be addressed.

TO CONTRACTORS, AND BUILDERS.
CLAYTON, SHUTTLEWORTH and Co. beg to call attention to their PORTABLE STEAM-ENGINES, so admirably adapted for working thrashing-mills, sawing, pumping, &c., in fact, for every purpose to which steam of horse power can be applied these engines will be found to effect a great saving, as well as expedite the work. They may be set up and efficiently managed by any man in the country. The 5-horse power will not consume more than 5 cwt. of coal per day, and, being fixed upon wheels, requires only one horse to move it from place to place, and can, after its arrival, be set to work in the course of one hour. Engines of 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10-horse power can be delivered in a fortnight from date of order.
Stamp-end Iron Works, Lincoln.
C., S. and Co. beg to submit the following testimonials:—
"Peterborough Docks, Construction Office,
"8th July, 1858.
"Gentlemen,—In reply to your inquiry, as to how the Portable Engines we have had from you will do, we have to say that they give us entire satisfaction, and far exceed our most sanguine expectations respecting them. Our opinion of them for sawing, pile-driving, pumping, &c. is, in fact, for the general uses that contractors can apply engines to, so good, so far as anything of the sort that we have seen, that cannot be surpassed, either for doing the same quantity of work with the least quantity of fuel or for little expense in keeping them in repair.—We are, Gentlemen, Yours truly,
"JOHN CRAVEN and SON."

Engineers, &c., Stamp-end Works, Lincoln."
